1. Membership situation 2024

- When the committee met the club had 119 members.
- The Director of Pierpont, Gary NISBET, has informed the President that the new cooperation agreement with Pierpont had been drafted, but the signature of the responsible administrator was still missing. The price for the “restricted country membership” would be increased to €270 (to arrive at the overall costs the price for the federation card, €68, and the EUGC membership fee of €72 must be added)

2. Golfing programme 2024 (state-of-play), and 2025 programme

- With Chantal JACQUES being absent due to a medical appointment the 2025 calendar was not discussed in detail. Committee members have received a first draft by mail.

The committee decided to remind members of the season opening weekend in Le Touquet (21 – 23 March 2025) by mail. The information related to this event would be published on the EUGC website.

Nine rooms have already been taken up.

- Dominic DOYLE, the captain, is responsible for the EUGC team playing the “Throphée Michel Blondel” in Wimereux (29-30 March 2025).
- The EUGC cooperation with MUGS over the winter cups had a smooth start. At this stage the committee continues to set-up the EUGC Winter Cups and the MUGS Eclectic competitions in i-Golf. The committee will subsequently inform MUGS of our players via a GOOGLE-form. After the match, players must inform the committee of their results by sending the photograph of a signed scorecard back to the committee. The results will be encoded in i-Golf.

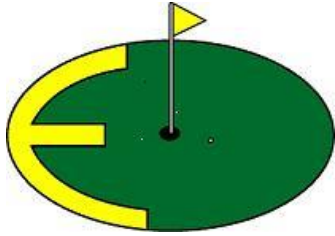

One committee member observed that so far only five EUGC Winter Cups were scheduled in the programme whereas it had been decided earlier to play seven Winter Cups in Pierpont. The President observed that, next to the five EUGC Winter Cups in Pierpont, 10 MUGS Eclectic winter competitions were added to the calendar, which offered members even more playing opportunities and a different golf course (Rigenée).

The committee decided that for the ranking of the winter cup players the four best results would be considered, of which two must have been played in Pierpont.

- Victoria PAGADIGORRIA, the Ladies' Captain, informed the committee that she would contact Pierpont to find suitable Wednesday for the “Ladies' Triangular Match” in 2025.

3. EUGC General Assembly

- The committee decided that the next general assembly (GA) would take place on 19 February 2025, 18.30 h, in the restaurant “Il Ramo Verdee”, Rue de Toulouse 46, 1040 Bruxelles.
